Up to Blankenship

As to Whether Democrats Will Go on the Ballot--Local Republican Clique Would Deprive 3000 Voters of Suffrage.

GANGSTER POLITICS PERSONIFIED

The announcement last Wednesday that the County Clerk proposed to leave all Democratic nominees off the ballot aroused the indignation of every fair-minded man in the county regardless of politics. Candidates who have spent much time and incurred great expense in making their campaign were told that the Republican Clerk, W. C. Blankenship, who is a candidate for re-election, had arbitrarily ruled that certificates had not been filed according to law. Democratic candidates were called from remote parts of the county, and told of the position taken by the Clerk to shut off opposition. Suit was hastily filed and the time of the candidates has since been consumed in a legal effort to compel the Clerk to do what the law and his position demands that he should do. Only one course was open and that was to take the case before Judge Slack. After a hearing Thursday night and Friday until late in the night, the Judge refused to grant the injunction. An appeal was taken but as the order was made in vacation the higher court had no jurisdiction to review the orders of the Judge and so decided. In the meantime the Republicans had through their paper advertised that no Democrats would be on the ballot. However, on yesterday, the Court of Appeals decided in a case from Allen county that the Clerk had no right to withhold the name of a regular nominee from the ballot simply because the candidate did not himself file the certificate which the Clerk issued to him. This, while in another case, settles the law, and sustains the position of the Democratic candidates and their attorneys that it is not necessary to file these certificates. It also develops that the Attorney General has been advising all the County Clerks who applied to him that this formality is not necessary. Mr. Blankenship, without communicating with this State official whose duty it is to advise in such matters, took the advice of his local advisers and stubbornly refused to put the name of a single Democratic candidate on the official ballot.

He proposed to deny the right of one half or more of the people from voting for their choice in any race for county office to avoid the overwhelming defeat which seems to stare him in the face. The same condition exists in many counties having Democratic clerks and so far as we have heard there is not an instance in which the Democratic clerk has undertaken to disfranchise the voters of his county by such a high-handed procedure. In Daviess county none of the Republicans filed their certificates but the clerk put their names on the ballot just the same. The same question has been decided by Judge Stout in the Franklin Circuit Court in favor of the contention that these certificates need not be filed as Mr. Blankenship insists. Hundreds of Republicans are denouncing the action of Clerk Blankenship and the leaders who backed him in the scheme to deprive about three thousand voters of their rights. This too, in face of the fact that the Clerk had over his own signature issued to a number of the candidates certificates like the one held by Prof. Shults which is as follows:

County of Ohio }
I, W. C. Blankenship, Clerk of the Ohio County Court, do hereby certify that the records in my office show that Ozna Shults is the only person, who has filed his "NOTIFICATION AND DECLARATION" as required by law, as a Democratic candidate for the office of Superintendent Schools of Ohio County, to be voted for at the Primary Election to be held on the 4th day of August, 1917, and it further appearing that the said Ozna Shults has filed his expense account, as required by law.

NOW THEREFORE, the said Ozna Shults is hereby issued a certificate of nomination as the Democratic candidate for said office, and is entitled to have his name printed on the official ballots to be voted for at the Regular November Election in the year, 1917.

Given under my hand, as Clerk aforesaid, this 21st day of July, 1917.
W. C. BLANKENSHIP,
Clerk Ohio County Court.

When the report became current yesterday evening that the Court of Appeals had decided the Allen county case in favor of the contention of the Democrats, considerable excitement was created among the Republican bosses who would hand out such a raw deal to the voters of Ohio county.

A committee of three Democrats called upon Clerk Blankenship at 7 o'clock last night and put the question up to him, demanding, on behalf of the candidates, to know if he proposed to print the names of the Democrats on the ballot or not. Blankenship said he did not know yet whether he would or not, but would decide about it this morning. Indignation has reached the remotest parts of the county, and many good Republicans are heaping condemnation upon the bunch of local tricksters who so much fear a square deal, and are willing to sacrifice the party to accomplish their own selfish ends.

This unheard of method of dealing with free born Americans, and Kentuckians at that, will be resented by the taxpaying patriotic citizens of the good county of Ohio and all other liberty loving people in the State. As said by a prominent Republican: "This is the worst thing that ever happened in this civilized community."

The remedy is through the ballot and we think it will be administered good and proper.

GROUND BROKEN FOR A. C. A. BUILDING

Work Will Be Pushed, As Weather Permits, Until Finished.

Ground was broken Monday, and grading begun on the lot recently purchased by the American Co-operative Association, preparatory to the beginning of the carpenter and brick work on the buildings to be erected thereon.

L. A. Monarch, of Owensboro, has the general contract for erecting the buildings, and has sub-contracted the brick work to Lefe Pean.

Work will be rushed, as the weather permits, and it is expected that the tobacco house will be ready for receiving the weed by the first of December.

NO MORE FREE DRINKS FOR COPS IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Oct. 27.—The time-honored custom of giving free beer and whiskey to policemen has been abandoned by breweries and saloons of Chicago, it was announced today by the Liquor Dealers' Association. Beginning November 1, the policemen of the beat must pay for his drinks the same as other customers.

The dealers say the high cost of beer and whiskey and increased taxes have caused them to take this action.

PROMOTIONS FOR OHIO COUNTY DRAFTED MEN

A recent issue of the Louisville Times contained the names of Foy E. Hinton and Carl Sapp, who have been appointed Sergeants in Co. K, 336th Inf., at Camp Zachary Taylor. John D. Ham, of Co. K, 336th Inf., has been placed in the physical culture section and Earl Felix Miller, of the same company, in the automatic arms section of the army school.

Mrs. J. A. Park, who was taken suddenly ill yesterday afternoon, is reported better at press hour.

French Generals Who Share Glory of Brilliant Victory Over Huns at Verdun

These are the heroes of the recent French drive on Verdun: General Riols de Fonclare, recently promoted to Grand Officer of the Legion of Honor, and General Corvisart, whose divisions captured Dead Man's Hill in one of the most brilliant battles of the war. They led the successful French forces as they drove the Germans from their supposedly impregnable positions. The picture was taken a short distance from the battle lines in a country which has been literally torn to pieces by shells and shrapnel. These generals alone stand responsible for the remarkable fight of the French at this important point on the western front.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Indiana Supreme Court Says It Conflicts With "Male Citizens" Definition.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 26.—The Indiana woman's suffrage law was held to be unconstitutional by the Indiana Supreme Court today. As a result thousands of women who expected to vote at the municipal elections to be held next month will not be permitted to do so.

Justice Harvey dissented from the decision of the other three Justices of the court. Justice Spencer wrote the decision, it being concurred in by Justices Meyers and Laird.

The Supreme Court held that under the present Indiana Constitution, which defines voters as "male citizens," the Legislature did not have the authority to confer the right of franchise on women as it attempted to do when in session in 1917. The court held the question before it to be constitutional only, and did not take up the contentions of the interests attacking the law that to permit women to vote would cause great additional expense and much confusion.

MAIL CHRISTMAS PACKAGES EARLY, OR THEY MAY NOT ARRIVE AT ALL

Chicago, Oct. 26.—A campaign for early shipment of Christmas packages was inaugurated at a joint meeting of the American Railway Association's Car Service Committees of Chicago, Milwaukee and South Bend. Co-operation in this campaign was promised by representatives of the National Industrial Traffic League and the Chicago Association of Commerce.

Each railroad is to do anything possible to promote early shipments of Christmas packages, whether by mail or express, according to a resolution adopted by the Car Service Committees. The railway mail service of the Government has expressed its appreciation of the plan of the railroads to handle promptly the unusually large amount of Christmas packages expected this year, but this cannot be done unless the public will ship such packages in advance of the usual time.

There will be approximately 1,000,000 soldiers in the various cantonments and training camps who will receive Christmas packages of an average weight estimated at five

SUGAR SHORTAGE RELIEF PROMISED FOR NEW YORK

Within the Next Fifteen Days—Price to Be 8 1/2 and 9 Cents a Pound.

New York Oct. 26.—Relief from the acute sugar shortage in New York within the next fifteen days is promised by B. A. Rolph chairman of the sugar division of the Federal Food Administration who arrived here yesterday after conference with refiners in Louisiana. Mr. Rolph said the price of granulated sugar would be 8 1/2 and 9 cents a pound. His promise was made after an all-day conference with American and International Refiners' committees. Coincident with Mr. Rolph's announcement Henry Moskowitz, Commissioner of Markets, said that potatoes at 3 cents a pound retail would be offered for sale today by the New York City Food Aid Committee. The retail prices yesterday were from 4 to 6 cents a pound.

New York will have plenty of coal for distribution when cold weather comes, and there is no excuse for hoarding, in the opinion of Reeve Schley, New York County Fuel Administrator.

4 1/2-lb. TURNIP—25 INCHES IN CIRCUMFERENCE

One of the largest turnips we have ever seen was sent to The Herald office last week by Mr. S. B. Wiggington, of Route 3, Hartford.

The vegetable weighed four and one-half pounds, and measured 25 inches in circumference. It was brought in by Mr. Rowan Holbrook, who was in Mr. Wiggington's neighborhood last week in the interest of the Liberty loan.

SPECIAL SERVICE

At the Methodist church Sunday evening, Nov. 4th, at 7 o'clock. The occasion is the Quadri Centenary of Martin Luther's death. The service will be fully illustrated with many beautiful stereopticon lantern slides and will be both entertaining and eductive. The public is cordially requested to attend. The country folks especially invited to come and bring the children. Admission will be free.

GUARD KILLS CONVICT IN SELFDEFENSE

Negro Who Attacked Officer At Eddyville Prison is Shot Four Times.

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 27.—Jonas Angel, a negro, serving five years at the Eddyville penitentiary for attacking Chief of Police T. A. Potter in this city last January, was killed by guards at the penitentiary Monday, according to word brought to this city by a negro just released from servitude. The negro stated to the officers here that Angel attacked one of the guards last Monday and took a "billy" from him after overpowering him. He was shot four times.

Angel came here from Mississippi the first part of the year, and appeared at the home of Dr. E. T. Barr, demanding money. Mrs. Barr, unknown to the negro, called her husband over the telephone. Chief of Police Potter, with one of his officers, went to the residence. It was then the negro attacked the officers with a hatchet, inflicting a severe wound. He feigned insanity, but was given five years at the February term of the Warren Circuit Court.

OHIO COUNTY OVERSUBSCRIBES

Her Quota of $90,000 of Liberty Bonds—Loan Wins in Nation.

Ohio county's quota of Liberty Bonds which was $90,000, has been oversubscribed and Mr. John H. Barnes, chairman of the Liberty Loan campaign in the county, is proud of the county and its patriotism.

Mr. Barnes was on the move the whole time during the campaign, and it is to his untiring efforts and those of his co-workers that Ohio county's quota was more than subscribed.

In the nation the bond issue of five billion was more than taken, which evidences the fact that the people are behind the government in the struggle for freedom and liberty.

TRANSFERRED SOLDIER WEDS IN QUICK TIME

Columbus, Ind., Oct. 27.—When Dallas Maxwell Stamm, private in the machine gun company of the 335th Infantry at Camp Zachary Taylor, learned yesterday he was to be transferred to Camp Shelby, he wired arrangements for his wedding here. He arrived at 5 o'clock last evening, got his license, was married in forty-five minutes to Miss Ina E. Wolford, and returned immediately to camp.

TOBACCO BRINGS $30.

Carlisle, Ky., Oct. 26.—There continues to be active buying of tobacco by speculators in Nicholas county, and prices offered are the highest ever known here. Thomas Waugh, of this county, reports that he has sold his large crop to Thomas Ashbury at an average of $26 per hundred pounds for all grades. Offers as high as $30 per hundred have been made for some of the best crops.

FIRST AMERICAN SHOT IS FIRED

Young Lieutenant First To Go Over Top For Uncle Sam.

SHELL WILL BE PRESENTED

To President Wilson That Killed The First German Fired By An American Soldier.

According to a news dispatch American troops have gone into action on the French front lines.

American shells from American guns have gone into enemy territory, and the first shell was a hit—the first raid a success.

The first American "over the top" was a Lieutenant, and his adventure, as the incident that really opened the war in European battlefields for the United States, is destined to become history. This young Lieutenant killed one German with an automatic revolver, and was cool enough in the thick of the fight to preserve the empty shell that contained the bullet that laid his adversary low.

A few seconds after the firing of the shell there was a puff of white smoke over the German lines, and a German working party had suddenly disappeared.

The shell will be preserved and presented to President Wilson.

CAUSE OF CANCER STILL A MYSTERY.

Chicago.—The cause of cancer is yet unknown to medical science, according to a statement made before the 3,000 surgeons who had been in Chicago, attending the eighth annual convention of the Clinical Congress of Surgeons, which yesterday merged with the American College of Surgeons, and is known as the Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons. Dr. Wm. T. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn., president-elect of the new body, in discussing the advances made in the treatment of cancer, asserted that while physicians cannot ascribe exactly the causes of that disease, it is known that hot foods taken into the stomach often result in cancerous growths in that organ.

Clean food coupled with food at normal temperatures might go a long way in removing one of the first causes of cancer, Dr. Mayo said, and subsequent speakers agreed in this. Sir Berkley Mowbray, of Leeds, England, member of the British army staff, who has made daily addresses to the surgeons, declared that in no line of surgery had such strides been made as in lung and pleura surgery. He advised surgeons contemplating war service to be prepared to go about the lung surgery resolutely and without misgivings as to severity. He said that the lung could be cleaned of slivers of shells just as one would cleanse a new sponge.

SUGAR LABELED "FLOUR"

Buffalo, N. Y.—Federal secret service agents here reported to Washington the discovery in a Buffalo warehouse of millions of pounds of sugar in bags and barrels labeled "top crust flour."

Notations on the packages, it was said, indicated that the sugar had been coming into the warehouse over a period of several months. A Federal agent who made a survey of the contents of the building estimated the amount of sugar at 150 carloads, or about 10,000,000 pounds.

Around immense piles of sacks containing the sugar the Federal agent said he found a screen of other articles, while some of the containers marked "top crust flour" actually had flour sprinkled over the outside.

DR. NAPIER'S TALK.

A stirring and instructive patriotic talk was made at Damon's Tuesday night by the Rev. B. W. Napier in behalf of the Liberty Loan movement. Other speakers who were expected failed to be present. Manager Thompson gave half of the evening's proceeds to the local Red Cross Chapter, and music was furnished by the Elkton orchestra.—Todd County Times.

1,000 SYRIANS STARVE DAILY

Relief Ship Held Up By Germans Real
Disaster.

OVER MILLION IN DISTRESS

With No Relief in Sight—75,000

Children are Among the Starving People.

New York.—A thousand deaths a day from starvation out of a population in the Lebanon Mountains, near Beirut, Syria, is the toll of famine conditions there resulting from the war, it was declared here by the Rev. William H. Hall, of the Syrian Protestant College, who recently returned to this country from relief work in that district.

Continuing Mr. Hall described the tragic disappointment of the people there, whose spirits were kept up for weeks by the promised arrival last Christmas time of the American relief ship Caesar, which would have meant life to thousands, but which never arrived, owing to the refusal of Germany and Austria-Hungary to grant her safe passage to Beirut.

The Caesar, a naval collier loaned to the Red Cross by the Navy Department, left New York months before the entry of this country into the war, as a "Christmas Ship" for the needy in Syria, carrying more than a quarter of a million dollars' worth of food and clothing contributed in this country.

Prayed For Ship's Coming.

"Day after day the poor, starving people along the coast and through the mountains looked and prayed for the coming of the 'American ship,'" Mr. Hall said. "The country was canvassed by well-organized committees, the needy were listed, the work of distribution was thoroughly prepared, offices were opened and men chosen to direct the distribution. The people waited. Their hopes were raised high."

"Week followed week and month followed month—in suspense the people daily looked out to sea for her—but the ship which meant life and hope to thousands never appeared. She was held by 'military necessity' while the people starved."

IN THE ANIMAL WORLD.

Torses in Algeria outnumber the human beings.

In Russia, where blinders are never used, a shying horse is almost unknown.

The robin eats his own weight and 56 per cent. over every day. His is principally a diet of worms.

There is a humane law in Moscow, Russia, which prohibits drivers of all kinds of vehicles from using whips. The general condition of the horses attests the wisdom and benefits of such a law.

The value of horses in the United States, January 1, 1917, is placed by the Government at $12,174,629,000. Iowa leads in the number of horses within the State: 1,552,000. Illinois comes next with 1,452,000.

One-tenth of the agricultural and horticultural interests of the United States are destroyed annually by insects and our greatest safeguard is the destruction of these by the wild birds. The birds are our country's greatest aids to food conservation.

A good way to render asphalt pavement less slippery is by heating the surface and then applying a layer of gravel, which is then rolled into the pavement. In wet weather the pavement retains its roughness and thus enables the horses to keep their footing.

The skunk has been classified as an animal of great economic importance by the Department of Agriculture. As an enemy to destructive insects and vermin, against which farmers could not successfully cope, this animal, so commonly despised and destroyed, should be protected at all times.

The first division of 2,000 carrier pigeons has been mobilized "somewhere in the Southern Department, U. S. A.," preparatory to service overseas. After brief training these erstwhile "doves of peace" will be sent to European battlefields to carry dispatches through the war zones.

It is the horse that has fought the war of the world and won our human liberty. Besides this, he has broken our prairies, sown and harvested our grain, and delivered it to the markets of the world. He has carried messages of victory and of sorrow, and down to the time of Washington he constituted the latest mode of communication known, if we except only the carrier pigeon.

German Soldiers in Captured French Village, Pull Down Statue to Use Metal For Making Shrapnel

The scarcity of metal for ammunition has become so acute in Germany that the armed forces of the Empire in captured areas in France and Belgium are taking every available statue, fence and metal ornament to send back to the great munitions works at home. Here is a group of German soldiers pulling down a statue in a French village. The photograph was found on a German soldier, captured by the French. The wagon standing nearby was used to carry the metal away after the statue had been broken to pieces. The destruction of historic relics has been marked by the occupation of towns and villages occupied by the Germans. After pillaging the deserted homes, all places of beauty are laid waste, particularly public squares and parks.

UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING NOW URGED

State Committees of Medical Section of Defense Council Adopt Resolutions.

Chicago.—Immediate adoption of universal military training was urged in resolutions adopted today by the State Committees of the Medical Section of the Council of National Defense at a meeting here. Only two States were without representation at the meeting—Maine and Delaware—and the adoption of the resolutions was without dissenting vote.

Consideration of physical strength and mental alertness, as well as national defense and the obligations of citizenship, should be taken up at once by the Government as a measure of national conservation, the resolutions declared. Six months was given as the least period of training and the age of the young men taken for training was placed at 19. Adequate physical training and instruction in the public schools also was advocated.

The resolutions pledged the members to use individual and collective effort to secure active public support for the plan, and a copy of the resolutions forwarded to Senators and members of Congress.

Peculiarly Rooseveltian.

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—After Col. Theo. Roosevelt had delivered a stirring address at a Liberty Day gathering here emphasizing the duties of the citizen to his country in the war, the audience subscribed more than $50,000 to the Liberty loan.

"Some fools have asked 'Why should our boys fight abroad?'" Col. Roosevelt said; then, pausing for a moment, he added:

"Our boys are fighting abroad with the allies so that they will not have to fight at home without allies. No man should wave a flag, sing a patriotic song or cheer unless he is willing to help out. He should shoot the way he shouts."

FOUND! NEW PAIR OF TROUSERS IN TREE TOP

Hickman, Ky.—W. T. Shanklin, a timber contractor, who is cutting stumpage at Miller, ten miles below Hickman, found in the top of a tall tree that had just fell a pair of new tailor-made trousers. The trousers were evidently blown to the tree in the cyclone on May 27. Where they came from or how far they were carried in the cyclone before lodging in the tree, it not known.

Colored People Delighted With New Discovery To Bleach the Skin.

Atlanta, Ga.—Says that recent tests have proven without doubt that swarthy or sallow complexions can be made light by a new treatment recently discovered by a man in Atlanta. Just ask your druggist for Cocotone Skin Whitener. People who have used it are amazed at its wonderful effect. Rid your face of that awful dark color or greasy appearance in a few minutes. It costs so little that you can't afford to be without it. Just think how much prettier you would look with that old dark skin gone and new soft, light skin in its place. Men and women today must care for their complexion to enter society.

SOULS MORE PRECIOUS THAN LIVES, HE SAYS

Minister Wants Churchmen Released
Because of Conscientious Scruples.

Laporte, Ind.—Declaring that he will make a personal appeal to President Wilson, the Rev. I. M. Whitmer, of South Bend, made a demand that several hundred members of the Brethren Church drafted and in service at Camp Zachary Taylor be granted exemption because of "conscientious scruples." Whitmer declared that while the Brethren Church is patriotic, it is against its principle to take a life and because the Constitution of the United States is based on religious freedom the men of the church should be sent home.

"Do you mean to say that you would rather see this country defeated by Germany and ruled by the Kaiser than have your church members fight for freedom?" Mr. Whitmer was asked. "I certainly would rather see all of them lose their lives than lose their souls," was the minister's reply.

BERLIN CHILDREN GO BAREFOOT TO SCHOOL

The Berlin Post comments sarcastically on the official excuses for the order that children shall go to school barefoot.

"In Berlin and its suburbs school children have for years been forbidden to go barefooted to school. Things are different now. The scarcity of leather and its clearness compel us to accusation ourselves to the spectacle of barefooted children passing through the streets."

"Imagine the worries and expense that might have been spared the poorer parents had the Education Committee seen the wisdom of such a regulation in peace times. It is strange that the authorities should not lay stress on the healthiness of going barefooted. If the practice is healthy nowadays why was it not so regarded before? Also, if it is so good for children why is it not equal so for adults? If grown-up Berliners could be induced to walk barefooted a refreshingly classical aspect would be imparted to our monotonous street life."

OHIO COUNTY BOY A SOLDIER IN TEXAS

Editor Herald:—As I am lonesome today, I thought I would write you a few lines in regard to soldier life in Texas.

We are treated fine down here—our cats are fine, only we are not used to eating our meals out on a sand bank in a whirlwind. We get to go to town every four days, and we are allowed from 6 in the evening to 6 in the morning, and most of us stay from 6 to 6.

Our motto is: "Berlin or bust." We are all going over there and we are not coming back until we've licked the Germans good. We are going to hang Kaiser Bill on a sour apple tree.

Some of the boys get awfully lonesome, especially so when they have to do a big washing, and nothing to do it with but a washpan, scrub brush and a bucket of cold water. But we are after Kaiser Bill.

I suppose we will be on our way to France in two weeks. An Ohio County Soldier Boy, 120 Aero Squadron, Kelly Field, South San Antonio, Texas.

TO THE PACIFIST.

How can we rest when all the world is weeping with sorrow it has never felt before? How can we rest when myriad hearts are breaking and the fiends never victorious as now?

How can we rest when lust and murder rage and hosts of orphans every hour made, when bloody chaos clasps the hand of madness, to invoke the aid of ghoully revelries?

How can we rest when cruelty is triumphant—Nero again turning earth into hell—his empire changed from Roman name to German—but the same old monster, Nero still?

How can we rest when, like the early martyrs, tortured by means conceived of by the damned, humanity and freedom writhe and suffer under a modern Nero's perverted will?

HOUR OF SACRIFICE IS HERE—REDFIELD

CABINET MEMBER DECLARES EVERY MAN MUST AID IN BEARING NATION'S LOAD.

MENACE IS STALKING ABROAD

Spirit of Conquest Has Poisoned the Very Soul of German People—We Must Unite Against the Common Foe.

Secretary Redfield in the strongest letter he has written since the beginning of the second Liberty Bond Campaign has sent to the employees of the Department of Commerce a letter pointing out the absolute necessity for making almost any sacrifice in order to purchase a Liberty Bond.

"I speak of the loan as calling for sacrifice. It ought to be that. It is in its essence a sacred thing laid upon the altar of your country," Secretary Redfield says in his note.

"It can hardly be the mere lending to the government of that which you have to spare. Your own loyal support, so generously given to the first Liberty Loan, may well make it impossible now to make the second subscriptions which are at once available. It is a real sacrifice for which the country calls," Mr. Redfield continues.

He then reminds employees that a menace has arisen in the world which threatens all humanity. "It has poisoned the very soul of the German people and made the power which now possesses them one whose rule is inconsistent with the peace of the world. That evil power has shown itself and its true nature in the deeds which make the rape of Belgium a world horror."

"The hideous record left behind by German hands in their retreat in northern France speaks eloquently of the nature of the thing we fight. This evil thing opposes every ideal in which Americans have been bred. It is hostile to the spirit of a free people; it seeks to dominate them; it would by force impose its will upon them. It is a cruel, ruthless force, and it will get us if we do not destroy it," the Secretary's letter continues.

Secretary Redfield then reminds the workers that Americans stand today beside the men of all races and all faiths in a common contest against a foe that threatens all.

"It is to take part, therefore, in a great human-wide struggle that you are called. It will require sacrifice, as I have said. The cause of the sacrifice is a worthy one, and it will not be made in vain," the Secretary says in closing his letter, which because of its touching appeal and genuine good sense will be given widespread publicity throughout the United States.

PURCHASER OF LIBERTY BOND DOUBLY REWARDED

Purchasers of Government Bonds of the second Liberty Loan of 1917 will derive much comfort from the investment, first, because of the feeling that they are helping the government, and second, because of the material benefits accruing from the interest paid every six months on the bonds.

Thrift is a virtue more honored in the breach than in the observance in this country, and the preacher of thrift is likely to talk to unwilling ears. For so many years Americans have been conscious of their extravagance, and even somewhat proud of it, that they have a feeling that it would be unworthy for them to skimp.

One of the attractive features of the Liberty Bonds is that the purchaser will not have to keep them until they become due, but can get his money back by selling the bonds any day. But the great comfort that the purchaser will have, will be derived, first, from the thought that he has helped his government in its hour of need, and second, that the money will be working for him days, nights and holidays, and that every six months it will prove that fact by a cash payment.

THE LIBERTY BOND

By N. WALTER MACINTYRE, St. Louis, Mo.

A Liberty Bond in every home
A feeling of pride creates,
A Liberty Bond in every home
Means peace for United States.

A Liberty Bond in every home
Offsets what we abhor,
A Liberty Bond in every home
Will help to end the war.

A Liberty Bond in every home
Protects your home and land,
A Liberty Bond in every home
Will show just where you stand.

A Liberty Bond in every home
Is a bullseye kind of hit,
A Liberty Bond in every home
Is proof that you're doing your bit.

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

American Patriots Extend Their Greetings to Pershing.

Washington.—Confidence in an ultimate "glorious victory" for American arms over German autocracy is expressed in an open letter addressed to Gen. John Pershing, commander of the United States expeditionary force, by the national committee of patriotic societies conveying Liberty Loan Day greetings and pledges of material assistance to the American commander and his men. The communication, made public here today, is signed by Lieut. Gen. S. B. M. Young, U. S. A., retired, honorary chairman, and Edward Harding, chairman of the executive committee.

"On this day designated by President Wilson as 'Liberty Day' when every city and hamlet, Americans, rich and poor, of every race and creed, are rallying to the financial support of the country by buying Liberty bonds," the letter reads, "we the representatives of two million Americans send our greetings to you and to your army."

"Each message which we receive concerning our soldiers and their unhurried, scientific training causes us to await with ever-increasing confidence for ultimate glorious victory."

"You are fighting our battles for us. We, therefore, regard with contempt those who refuse to lend their money to the government and thus support you, when you and your men so freely offer your lives upon the altar of the nation's need. You are fighting in a noble cause, the cause not only of democracy, but for the safety of every man, woman and child in the United States."

"We pledge ourselves to give you that material assistance which you so urgently require and so richly deserve."

"Americans will forever be grateful for the victory you will achieve for this world."

MEATLESS-WHEATLESS

New York Restauranters Pledge Themselves to Economy.

By R. M. Gates.

Washington.—The hotels and restaurants division of the United States food administration has received a report from New York City that out of 225 members of the Society of Restauranters, 224 have adopted a "meatless Tuesday" and a "wheatless Wednesday." It was also reported that beginning last Wednesday no wheat was used in any French pastries and pies served at the Biltmore, the Manhattan and the Ansonia hotels, as well as a number of other hotels in New York City; rye, rice, chestnut and potato flours were substituted.

When tea or coffee is served in the rooms in some of the New York City hotels, three pieces of sugar are served to one person and five pieces to two persons. All icing on pastry, it was added, has been eliminated.

One New York City hotel supply company reports that since meatless Tuesday has been inaugurated its tonnage has dropped 12,000 to 14,000 pounds as compared with the average Tuesday of August.

August is regarded as a fair average, although it was less than the heavy months of last fall.

CORN PRODUCTS CONFERENCE.

Washington.—The country's principal manufacturers of corn products conferred with officials of the food administration regarding the use of corn starch, corn syrup and corn oil as war time substitutes for wheat, sugar and fats. The huge corn crop this year, it was pointed out, would make it possible to provide cheap substitutes for many staples that must be conserved. A special committee was appointed to co-ordinate the work of the industry with that of the food administration.

TRIPLETS BORN TO HER WHILE ABOARD TRAIN

Denver, Colo., Oct. 25.—Mrs. J. C. Atkinson, of Seattle, Wash., became the mother of triplets aboard a west-bound Rock Island train.

Two of the children were born in Kansas, and the third at Peconic siding, just across the Colorado line. Mrs. Atkinson had been visiting in the east. Mother and children are well and now are at Colorado Springs.

RECORD TOBACCO PRICE.

Sells at Winston-Salem at $35.17 Per Hundred Pounds.

Winston-Salem, N. C.—The Winston Leaf Tobacco market smashed all previous known records for this or any other market, when it sold 579 880 pounds for $203,991.33, an average price per hundred pounds of $35.17.

FARMERS MUST BE NATION'S HELPERS

SPIRIT OF ISRAEL PUTNAM IS NEEDED IN ALL RURAL COMMUNITIES.

LIBERTY CALLED AND HE WENT

Same Spirit of Freedom is Calling to American People Today—Are You Responding Like a Putnam?

The spirit which actuated Israel Putnam more than a century ago is what is needed in America today, according to men who are in close touch with the war conditions and the affairs of the United States.

Putnam was plowing his non-productive New England field when a horseman dashed up and told him the tale of the British raid on Lexington. It was seedling time and Putnam's field demanded immediate care.

Did he falter or hesitate? Did he procrastinate? No. He left his team in the field still hitched to the plow and hurried away to answer the call of his country. He did not stop to consider the cost of leaving. Liberty was at stake and he was off to the rescue.

Liberty is at stake again. Your liberty and the liberty of the rest of the civilized world. Every day the rural mail brings the story with all its dread warning along the winding country road to the Israel Putnams of today.

But they are not in the fields. They are storing their $2 and $3 wheat, their $2 potatoes and their $2 corn and their $3 onions. They, better than anyone else, know how well they are responding to the call of Liberty.

But it is time that these men, as well as their city brothers awake. Do your bit in placing the second issue of Uncle Sam's Liberty Bonds. Uncle Sam is your friend. But he can do only what you assist him accomplishing with all your might. Get busy, today. Be an Israel Putnam in your community.

ARKANSAS TENANT FARMERS TO BUY LIBERTY LOAN BONDS

"Tenant farmers of Arkansas, who in previous years have found it difficult to make both ends meet, are this year going to be liberal buyers of Liberty Bonds," said H. A. Morrison, cashier of the Bank of Commerce, Earl, Crittenden County, Arkansas.

A ten-million dollar cotton crop in his county alone explains why this is to come about. Mr. Morrison said that his fellow citizens were showing such enthusiasm in the new bond issue that he came to St. Louis to arrange to supply them with bonds.

"Heretofore," said Mr. Morrison, "the proceeds of the annual harvest was not sufficient to maintain the farmers until the next crop could be harvested, and it was the custom in April to begin buying food and other necessities on credit. The result was that in the fall it usually took about all the farmer got for his crop to pay his debts and get through the winter."

"This year it is different. The planters are going to get from 30 to 45 cents a pound for cotton, whereas before they only got from 6 to 10 cents."

"One fine thing about these bonds is that the farmer can use them as legal tender. In case they need money they will find their war bond investment readily negotiable."

Crittenden County's allotment is $81,000, but Mr. Morrison is going to try to dispose of $135,000 worth there.

JIM DALE

By Ellis Parker Butler.

Young Jimmy Dale, across our street,
Is just a gawky lad.
He grew so fast, the doctors said,
His heart was mighty bad;
They wouldn't let him do much work
Or any hearty play,
But, just the same, they drafted Jim,
And Jim has gone away.
Jim was a sort of great, big kid,
And fooling all the while;
So, when they ordered him to camp,
He went there with a smile.
Jim Dale is in the army now,
Lank legs, bum heart and all,
To fight like other drafted men
That got the country's call.

God, yes! Jim's heart may drop him dead
Or he may live to be Shot all to pieces "over there"—
What odds to you or me?
By thunder! It's these odds to you!—
If kids like Jim can go,
With smiles, to fight our wars for us
We can put up the dough.
If we can buy a bond or two
And DON'T, while Jim, poor cuss,
Goes smiling off to death or wounds—
Then hell's too good for us.

Keq of Pennies
is Exchanged for
$3.00 Loan in Bonds

Three years ago J. P. White, sides, who sells newspapers at Edwardsville, Ill., decided he would save all the pennies he received. He accumulated a keg of the coins, which he kept in a cellar.

Last week he took the keg to a bank and exchanged the pennies for $300 worth of Liberty Bonds.

RECENT ECONOMICAL CONVICT ROAD BUILDING IN CALIFORNIA

The successful use of convicts on California road work has been reported from time to time but some definite figures of the economies obtained by such work have recently been made public by Charles F. Stern, of the State Highway Commissioners. About 33 miles of difficult mountain road have been recently finished in Mendocino county. The engineers estimated that the work would cost from $335,000 to $400,000; it was completed for $200,000, a most unusual instance in these days when estimates are so frequently overrun. The grading required the moving of about 200,000 yards of material, over half of it rock, which the engineers figured would cost about 40 cents a yard to handle. Convict labor cut that cost nearly in half. In reaching the actual costs, every item of expense is included, clothing, transportation, food, camp equipment and medical attention. The cost of guarding is not included for the reason that in California the convict road camps are honor camps, and the representatives of the prison are unarmed, their duties being supervisory. The men are treated like free laborers, on and off duty, and the result of this policy was summed up by Mr. Stern as follows: "Unquestionably this system, safely and sympathetically handled, means the building of many hundreds of miles of roads that could not otherwise be built, at a saving of many thousands of dollars in the cost of construction."

FARMER TO HELP MAINTAIN FREEDOM HE HELPED WIN

In the first Liberty Loan Campaign, many of the farmers of the country were not reached, and subscriptions from the rural communities were few.

There were several reasons for this, the foremost of which was that the loan was put out in the spring, when they were busy with their crops and it was difficult for the canvassers to interview them.

Then, too, they had to borrow money for their planting. Now their crops in, and at the present high price of food stuffs they should have a large sum of money in their hands.

For a loan of a portion of that money, the Liberty Bond campaigners are now appealing all over the country. The various farm bureaus and societies are co-operating and good results are expected.

When liberty came to America the farmer helped to bring it. He carried the gun; he contributed unsparingly of his substance; he fed the armies. In the present struggle for universal liberty it is certain he will do no less.

He has already made splendid response to the demand for greater food production. The first loan largely overlooked the farmer—the efforts were concentrated in the cities.

The second campaign should give every opportunity for farmers as individuals and their organizations to support the government in its financial program. It is the highest expression of Americanism that all the people should help carry the common load in this critical hour.

KULTUR MUST BE ENDED NOW FOR ALL TIME

"Buy more Liberty Bonds than you can see your way clear to paying for. Buy them and cut your expenses and use your savings to meet the payments."

This was the message given to Missouri patriots by R. Goodwin Rhett, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, in addressing a meeting of Liberty Loan workers in St. Louis.

"We must make a sacrifice equal to that which our boys are making. Buying bonds does not fulfill the first principle of this sacrifice," Rhett said. Rhett declared that oratory and publicity will not suffice to make the bond sale a success. He advocated a systematic canvass of every city and every precinct in the nation.

"There can be no peace as long as kultur is a vital force in the world," Rhett declared. "It must be ended now and forever."

SUCCESS OF LOAN VITAL TO U. S., DECLARES M'ADOO

Failure of the present or any subsequent issue of bonds during the war with Germany would impair the credit of this country, with disastrous results, is the warning being voiced by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo in his speaking tour of the country in the interest of the Second Liberty Loan.

"If the credit of the United States is undermined," the Secretary declares, "what is property worth to the rich man; what is life worth to the free man?"

The Beautiful Gulf Coast.

PASS CHRISTIAN.

Pass Christian is the Newport of the Gulf Coast, and one of the most fashionable and popular resorts in the South. The town, of about 2,000 permanent population, is very generally engaged in entertaining and serving the large numbers who come here, summer and winter, for recreation. Society congregates at "The Pass" at all seasons—the summer guests coming from neighboring southern cities—the winter throng from all parts of the South.

Pass Christian was named for a Spanish explorer who discovered the deep-water pass that lies close to the main shore. It is an old and much honored settlement, having been a popular resort from far back in ante-bellum days. Tradition associates it with the gayest of southern society and with men and women famous in high social circles of this and foreign lands. President Wilson is one of Pass Christian's recent guests. Its location is one of the choicest on the Coast. The low-lying shore slopes upward to wooded hills, where pines and splendid old oaks, magnolias, palmettos and a variety of tropic vegetation grow and flower an dfflourish luxuriantly, while fine old homes, elegant modern villas and charming bungalows line the avenues and drives along the shore. Life is ever active at The Pass; there is boating, motoring, golf, tennis and fishing by day and dancing and all other indoor festivities for the evening. Pass Christian boasts of one of the finest golf courses anywhere in the South.

Its proximity to New Orleans and excellent transportation service over the Louisville & Nashville Railroad places all the diversions of the metropolis within reach of visitors at Pass Christian who make a day for shopping in New Orleans and return in time for dinner, which is one of the social functions at The Pass; or, remaining in the city for dinner, you can return at your pleasure later in the evening.

The hotels rank with the finest in the country, and there are many delightful old country homes, where good board and real southern hospitality are found. The inland country back of Pass Christian is beautiful, and many charming drives may be taken over the excellent roads, among fine, productive fruit and truck farms, which ship much of the early garden stuff that is so eagerly sought in northern markets. The fishing in St. Louis Bay and the tributary streams is excellent, many anglers finding their best sport in the little rivers and streams of the immediate interior.

Across the bay from Pass Christian is the somewhat exclusive cottage resort of Bay St. Louis, a place much frequented by residents of New Orleans, who own cottages and bungalows and come here for the water sports and the fishing. It is also popular in winter with many northern people who prefer the quiet of cottage life, with the accompanying freedom for outdoor sports, to the gay and more fashionable routine of the larger neighboring resorts.

Pass Christian and Bay St. Louis are reached only by the modern steel passenger trains of the LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD. Advertisement.

JUDGE COURT OF APPEALS.

We are authorized to announce
HON. J. W. HENSON, of Henderson, a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from the Second Appellate District (subject to the action of the Democratic party.

"SOFT SOAP."

When any one of the Republican candidates tells you he has no objection to his opponent being on the ballot, ask him what he did to prevent it.

Among those who went to Owensboro to render assistance to Clerk Blankenship in resisting the efforts to get the Democrats on the ballot, so all voters might participate in the election, were: Mack Cook, L. L.
Embry, S. A. Bratcher, E. S. Howard and campaign chairman E. G. Barrass. A. D. Kirk was not there, but he personally employed a lawyer to represent Clerk Blankenship. In addition to his local legal advisors the clerk was represented by attorneys Geo. W. Jolly and W. P. Sandidge, of Owensboro, and Woodward &
Kirk, of Henderson, and Hartford.

Mr. Blankenship did not offer any of the candidates as witnesses. However, the Democrats put all of those present on the stand, and some of the evidence was very certain, specific and illuminating. For example,
Mr. Howard could not remember when he received his certificate, from whom he obtained it or with whom he filed it, though he seemed to be sorry he could not unravel the mystery with which some of the certificates is surrounded.

Some of the Republicans are
"prattling" around town that the Democrats knew they had no chance next Tuesday, and by the candidates failing to file their nomination papers was about the best way out of it. But the fair-minded intelligent voters are mighty "few and far between" that will permit such "soft soap" to be rammed down their throats
—be they Republicans or what not.
If the Republicans thought the Democrats didn't have a chance, why didn't they "toe the mark" like men and fight it out at the polls? No, they preferred to slip up behind them, catch them unawares and put them where they knew they would not have to fight them fairly. We do not believe such methods as used by the Republicans in Ohio county, who have the County Clerk, as compared with the fairness of the Democratic clerk in Daviess and other counties in the State, who went ahead and put the names of the Republicans, who had not filed their nomination papers on the ballot, will be tolerated by a fair-minded people.

The greatness of our transportation facilities has been demonstrated in many instances since the program of preparedness was mapped out, and the prompt systematic handling of freight has contributed wonderfully toward expediting the building of our army and navy. Material and supplies have been transported with a rapidity never before approximated in this or any other country. One of the most striking examples of ability and willingness on the part of the railroads and other agencies concerned is the construction of the cantonment at Louisville. The administration buildings there were put up one week with lumber cut in the pine forests in Mississippi the week before. The trees were felled on Saturday, kiln dried on Sunday, loaded on freight cars Monday and delivered on the camp site at Louisville Wednesday morning. A force of energetic carpenters completed the transformation from forest to Government buildings just one week from the time the woodmen, with saws and axes, cut the trees in the Mississippi flats. The railroads have not only shown a high degree of efficiency but have, in this and many other cases, proven their willingness to do their bit in carrying out the war program with the greatest possible rapidity.

When a set of Republican candidates and their campaign manager
are not willing to risk their own brilliant legal advisors, but employ some of the highest priced lawyers in Owensboro to aid in the attempt to disfranchise fifty per cent of the voters, it is conclusive that they regard their chances extremely slim in a free and fair election. Having outraged some members of their own party by combinations, trades and all sorts of political "chicanery," some of those in the saddle realize that whenever an even start is given and the voters get a whack at the bunch, the ballots of righteous indignation will cover them seven times deeper than the "negro in the woodpile."

"Through an unfortunate oversight
or more probably through the advice of an unskilled attorney the Democratic candidates failed to file their certificates of nomination," says the Republican mouthpiece. Then in another article on the same page it says "it is hardly possible that Judge Glenn, a lawyer of ability, could have been ignorant of a law that has been in force for years." It is just about as consistent in this as it has been in promulgating everything else in connection with the campaign. As about half the counties in the State are guilty of the same offense as the Democrats in Ohio county, there must be more than one "unskilled"
lawyer in the State.

Some of the Republicans were in high glee last Wednesday when it became known that the Democrats had failed to file their nomination papers,
and were dubbing them a bunch of "chumps," etc. But when the Republicans found out, by reason of the Democrats instituting proceedings to force the County Clerk to put the names of their nominees on the ballot, that not a Republican candidate, including some of the smartest of their party, in Daviess county had filed their certificates of nomination, their glee immediately subsided, and they are now aware that there are about as many "chumps"
in the G. O. P. as in other parties.

It will be a "cold day in June"
when the fair-minded people of Ohio
county believe the Republican candidates when they say they had rather have had opposition in the coming election than for the Democrats to have failed to qualify. Yes, they wanted opposition so bad that half the Republican candidates and all the lawyers they could rake together went to Owensboro to prevent the Democratic nominees from going on the ballot. There is not a man in the good old county of Ohio, who believes in a fair deal, who cannot take a look at the "negro in the woodpile"
and see the color of his stripe.

Funny, isn't it—that so many of the Republican candidates preferred
(now) to run the race out when at the same time they all countenanced
the raw deal that was given the Democrats? Can't tell us that if a man is going to fight another and feels confident that he can whip him that he will slip up and strike his opponent from behind. Yes, they were so anxious to run it out in November that most all of the Republican nominees went to Owensboro to see that the Democrats did not get on the ballot.

Wm. Henderson, owner of the Wickliffe Yeoman, Democratic nominee for County Judge of Ballard has opposition in an independent candidate. We venture the assertion that Mr. Henderson is not "losing any sleep" over the chances of his being defeated as Ballard is safely Democratic and he has enough friends in that party there to see that no independent beats a man so well fitted and qualified for the place
as he.

The success of the Liberty Bond campaign in Ohio county is due chiefly to the untiring efforts of the county chairman, Mr. John H.
Barnes. Mr. Barnes and his co-workers deserve still more credit for selling Ohio county's quota of the bonds when the fact that a warm political campaign for county offices was on, and that our people had never been educated to the feasibility of buying the bonds is considered.

Is the office of County Clerk one
of public trust or political snap?
Does the incumbent serve the people or his political bosses and his own selfish interests? The certificates of nomination to Republican and Democratic candidates who had opposition in the primary were left together in his office by the election commissioners. He left the Democrats off the ballot because each one did not come in, take out the certificate and then hand it to him to file. Yet, in some mysterious way, every Republican certificate, save two, were marked
"filed" on the same day in his office.
Mr. Blankenship swore he did not know the Democratic certificates
were there until Tuesday morning—
one day too late to file. Bratcher, nominee for sheriff, swore he never did take his certificate out or even see it. Somebody got it right where those of the Democrats were. It was filed by Blankenship himself on the 8th day of October, as shown by his own signature. Can you see any negro in this kind of a woodpile?

Every one who has had to contend with two telephones will undoubtedly vote "yea" on the constitutional amendment, providing for the consolidation of telephone companies.
Thus will the expense of maintaining two telephones and they are as annoying as they are useless. What we need is more efficient and better service, and the way to get it is to vote
"yea" in November on the amendment.

The Democrats in Ohio county are not the only "chumps" in the world,
as the Republican organ would have you believe, as neither party filed their nomination papers in Daviess.
There is in that county, however, a fair Democratic County Clerk who was not so narrow as to only put the names of the Democratic nominees
on the ballot, but who put the Republicans on as well.

The Owensboro Messenger of Saturday editorially says: "The action of the Democratic county clerk of Daviess in voluntarily putting the names of Republican candidates on the ballot, as compared with that of the Republican county clerk of Ohio and the Republican county clerk of Allen, bears its own comment."

Why, Bro. Thomas, how can you expect us to follow your advice and employ a Republican lawyer when your own candidates just go right on and hire a Democrat? Maybe if they had employed the Democratic lawyer in the redistricting case, they would have had less costs to pay and more money for the campaign.

Pretty tough on Chicago police since the saloonkeepers of that city have issued an edict that no more free drinks go. The price of whiskey has gotten so high that saloon men cannot afford to give it away
for "favors."

A New York dispatch says that never before has the alcoholic ward of the hospital in that city had so few patients, due to the high cost of drinks. This is one instance in which old "High Cost" has worked to advantage.

It took a good big slice of the Republican campaign fund to pay that Democratic lawyer at Owensboro, employed by the campaign chairman
and candidates, to prevent, if possible, opposition at the polls next Tuesday.

More than 150 carloads of sugar, or about 10,000,000 pounds, has been discovered at Buffalo, N. Y., by Federal agents labeled flour. It is said that this "flour" was intended for the German Government.

Ohio county has made a fine crop of sorghum molasses this year, and we can have "lasses" and biscuits
this winter, provided we can muster the biscuits.

Thanks to the editor of the Republican for its condolence, but "it's a long lane that has no turn."

MR. HOOVER THANKS

FORMER MEMBER OF
COMPANY H DIES

Herman Morris Passes Away at
His Home On Route 1 Friday Afternoon.

Pulmonary tuberculosis was fatal to Herman Morris, age 18, who died at the home of his father, Mr. J. T.
Morris, on Route 1, Friday afternoon at one o'clock.

Young Morris, formerly a member of Co. H, 3d Ky. Inf., was forced to return home about two months ago. He saw service on the border with the boys. He was a brother of Ernest Morris, who formerly drove an auto between here and Beaver Dam.

His remains were buried at Concord church burying grounds Saturday, after funeral services conducted by the Rev. Snell.

DR. RILEY WRITES
FROM BENJ. HARRISON

Dear Coombs:—This is an officers training school both for line officers and medical officers. Have at this time about 2,000 young men in training for line officers; also about 1,000
doctors in training to help the boys who go over the top of the trenches
on the front and get the kaiser's
"goat," and they are sure going to get it. Also have about 2,000 young men (volunteers) who are in training to carry the wounded back from the front line trenches, and a fine set of boys they are. Have artillery, and the drill is enough to put the patriotic blood boiling to see the field canon, with six horses hitched to it and the huge sound the advance and a line one mile long start as if one,
and a run across the field looks like something doing. Then comes the ambulance corps of a great number of mule and automobile ambulances follow. Then the field hospital corps with doctors in sanitary automobiles
also in action in a few minutes.

It looks like real war. We have real trenches in operation and battles every night. Some of the doctors are on duty in trench front lines to care for the wounded, so you see the doctors are not in the rear in actual warfare. The doctors learn all the duties of the line officers and medicine besides, so when I get home will be able to drill all the old fellows who "fit, bled and died" in the Civil War, as I have to drill the sanitary troops, and they have the dismounted cavalry drill.

The only objections I have to being in the army is that I am away from my family and my friends, for I know some of my patients miss those large capsules and bitter teaspoonfuls in ¼ glass water after a good dinner and they are the kind that I know are glad I am away. But if a German bullet don't get me on the other side, I will be a better doctor as this schooling—both medicinal and military—does more towards qualifying
a doctor than I had any hopes for.

Very truly,
A. B. RILEY, MD.,
M. C. U. S. Army.

ALLISON BARNETT

Soon To Leave For France—
Only Waiting Transportation.

Mrs. C. M. Barnett has received word from her son, Allison J. Barnett, Captain of Co. H, 158th U. S.
Inf., now stationed at Camp Shelby,
Miss., that he is now awaiting transportation to go to France, and as soon as it arrives he will be off to the European fields of hostilities.

HARRY LAUDER'S WAR SPEECH

To a party of business men in New York City the other day, Harry Lauder, the Scotch comedian, told of the Germans turning naked English prisoners loose to go back to their own lines and then mowing them down with machine guns. "I know that's true," said Lauder, "because my only son told me. When I say my son I know you will believe me,
for he fought and bled and died for France. I love France," he continued, "I own a little piece of France.
It is where my son is buried on a beautiful green hillside. And when I went to his grave I wanted to reach down under the grass and put my arms about his neck and kiss him
and thank him for all he had done for his mother and for me." When the little Scotchman went on with his speech there were few dry eyes
in the room.

GREAT DAY AT UNION GROVE.

Taffy, Ky., Oct. 29, 1917.

Editor Hartford Herald,
Hartford Ky.

Dear Sir:—The people of Union
Grove community had a great day last Sunday. There was an all-day meeting with dinner on the ground.
The splendid women of the community fixed a most excellent dinner for the great crowd that was present.
Bro. Samuel E. Harlan, minister of the Christian church, of Hartford, delivered three of the best sermons
that was ever heard in this community. He held his large audiences spell-bound in all the sermons that he has preached. We all love Bro.
Harlan. He has endeared himself to the hearts of all who have had the great pleasure of associating with him. Every one left old Union Grove rejoicing that they had come.

SKY IS FILLED WITH BIRDS WINGING SOUTH

The biggest migration of wild geese and ducks seen at Paducah for years was last week one night when the sky fairly swarmed with the birds flying to the southland. People on the streets were attracted by the cries overhead as hundreds of geese swept by. It looked like Uncle Sam's fleet of airplanes that are going to be sent to France to administer the finishing touches to the kaiser. According to rivermen the rivers were full of geese and ducks.

From Shelters in Buildings Destroyed By Boches, French Pour Deadly Fire at Emeny

The destruction of public buildings by the Germans in France, while distressing to the residents of villages which have been visited, has not been wholly satisfactory to the invaders. For the French in their recent offensive movements have found in these same ruined buildings some advantageous shelters. Here they have hidden their machine gun batteries and are mowing down the Hun who are opposing them in the open country. The French are fighting like demons at this point "somewhere in France." Their recent drive has been one of the most effective of the war.

AGED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Mr. Elijah T. Williams Succumbs
To the Ravages of Brights Disease.

Monday night at 9:30 o'clock, death claimed Mr. Elijah Thomas Williams, at his home on north Main street.

Mr. Williams had long been a sufferer of nephritis, but his condition did not become serious until two weeks ago, since which time he gradually grew weaker until his death.

Mr. Williams was born near Beaver Dam, on the old Williams homestead, where his father and grandfather were also born, Jan. 24, 1841,
and would have been 77 years old January next.

He joined the Baptist church at Beaver Dam in 1863, and moved his church membership to Hartford on its reorganization.

On October 11, 1910, he married Miss Sadie E. Hendricks, who, together with one brother, Clarence Minard, and a host of nieces and nephews survive.

Mr. Williams was one of Hartford and Ohio county's most highly respected citizens and was honored with the Democratic nomination for County Judge in 1896. His brother, Jesse, who preceded him to the grave
several years, at one time represented Ohio county in the Legislature.

After funeral services, conducted at the Baptist church by Revs. Edgar Allen, of the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. A. D. Litchfield, of the Methodist church, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. His remains were laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery.

The following is the constitution of Parent Teachers' Association of Hartford, adopted at the completion of its organization last Friday afternoon:

Art. I. The name of this organization shall be the Parent Teachers' Association of Hartford, Ky.

Art. II. The object of this association shall be the co-operation of parent and teacher for the benefit of the child.

Art. III. Any one interested in child welfare shall be eligible to membership.

Art. IV. Sec. I. The officers shall be president, first and second vice presidents, recording secretary, corresponding secretary and treasurer.

Sec. II. The officers shall be nominated from the floor and elected by a majority of the members present at the first regular meeting for a term of one year.

Art. V. Fifteen shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Art. XI. This constitution may be amended at any meeting by a two thirds vote of those present, written notice of proposed change having been given at a previous meeting.

Art. VII. The president shall appoint chairman of such standing committees as she may think necessary and these with the officers shall constitute an executive board for the transaction of business.

Art. VIII. The association shall hold an afternoon meeting on the second Friday of each month from September till May.

The following officers were elected:
President, Mrs. John Wilson; First
Vice President, Mrs. Marvin Bean;
Second Vice President, Mrs. J. C.
Iler; Recording Secretary, Mrs. A.
K. Anderson; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Lelia Glenn; Treasurer, Mrs. R. R. Riley; Attendance Committee, Mrs. Will Bean, Mrs. J. H.
Williams, Mrs. R. R. Riley and Mrs.
Carlisle Rander.

The next meeting will be the second Friday afternoon in November at 3 o'clock. Everybody is urged to attend.

The Campfire Girls have volunteered to stay and take care of the babies and little ones. This will give many parents an opportunity to attend who otherwise might not be able to.

CIVIC BODIES AND PRESS FAVOR THE AMENDMENT

There is wide spread interest throughout the state in the constitutional amendment permitting the purchase of one telephone company by another, which was adopted by the last Legislature, and which will be voted upon at the coming November election. Chambers of Commerce and civic bodies in a large number of communities have adopted resolutions endorsing the amendment and pledging their efforts towards its passage. Newspapers throughout the state are also endorsing the amendment and are urging the importance of a favorable vote by the people.

The amendment to the constitution, which is made a part of Section 201, is as follows:

"Provided, however, that telephone companies may acquire by purchase or lease, or otherwise, and operate, parallel or competing exchanges, lines and structures, and the property of other telephone companies, if the railroad commission or such other state commission, as may have jurisdiction over such matters shall first consent thereto, and if, further, each municipality wherein such property or any part thereof is located shall also first consent thereto as to the property within its limits, but under any such acquisition and operation toll line connections with the property so acquired shall be continued and maintained under an agreement between the purchasing company and the toll line companies then furnishing such service, and in the event they are unable to agree as to the terms of such an agreement the railroad commission or such other State commission as may have jurisdiction over such matters, shall fix the term of such agreement."

Chambers of Commerce which have passed resolutions favoring the amendment are those at Bowling Green, Frankfort, Lexington, Shelbyville, Henderson, Middlesboro, State Chamber of Commerce of Louisville, and others. Quite a number of newspapers have endorsed the amendment editorially, both at points where there are two telephone systems and in cities where there is only one system.

The Anderson News, Lawrenceburg, Ky., says:

"Two telephone lines in any community, both contending for supremacy, are a perfect nuisance. Two telephones in a private residence are too expensive to maintain; two telephones in a business house are an expensive necessity; therefore the General Assembly has come to the rescue of the people if they will accept its assistance and go to the polls in November and cast their vote for this amendment."

The Danville, Ky., Messenger says:

"It is hoped that the people will remember and vote for this amendment, as it is the only way in which the public in some localities will ever have decent service."

The Interior Journal, Stanford, Ky., says:

"The Interior Journal favors the amendment and will vote for it. One system answers the demand and two are as annoying as they are useless. The demand is for good service, not for multiplicity of exchanges. Then, too, the expense of two systems must be considered. This is just double, and in some cases more than double. Oh! no, don't give us more telephone exchanges, but better service. This is the need of the hour. The amendment ought to carry."

The Bowling Green, Ky., Times-Journal says:

"We cannot too highly commend the Chamber of Commerce in its efforts to secure the adoption of this amendment by the voters. The Times-Journal is for the amendment, and will add its efforts to those of the Chamber of Commerce to bring about the adoption."

The Paducah, Ky., Sun says:

"The public interest is thoroughly protected under the proposed constitutional amendment, as no purchase can be made without the consent of the city council. The passage of the bill providing for the constitution amendment and the practically unanimous vote it received in the General Assembly is evidence that it was passed in response to a wide spread and popular demand for relief from present telephone conditions."

The Middlesboro, Ky., Three States says:

"Three States has for a number of years in the past been a constant agitator for the one telephone system, showing where the one system could better and more economically serve the public than two or more systems. The expense of two systems is burdensome upon the public and the botheration and confusion of having the walls of your place of business lined with telephones, where one could do the work is sufficient reason why the public should demand one system."

HIGH SCHOOLS

Of State Have Shown Steady Developments.

Frankfort, Ky.—During the past six years the high schools of the State have developed at a steady rate in number of schools established, in number of teachers employed, in enrollment of pupils and in general facilities. McHenry Rhoads, High School Inspector, has gathered reports from the schools of the State which cover practically the entire field showing that a steady progress in high school development has been made during the past year.

When the new county school law was passed in 1908 there were but twenty-eight high schools in connection with city school systems, which maintained a standard four-year course of study and forty high schools connected with independent graded districts. Before the law making it mandatory that every county establish and maintain high schools went into effect there were but 5,000 pupils enrolled in the high schools of the State. At the close of the last school year, June 30, 1917, there existed 376 high schools supported in whole or in part by public funds, having an enrollment of 20,800 pupils and employing 1,288 teachers, with an equipment of housing facilities, the total value of which exceeds $7,000,000.

From the statistical tables given in the report of High School Inspector Rhoads, the following general facts have been gathered. Number of high schools in Kentucky 376; number of high schools reporting, 359; total enrollment, 20,800; value of high school buildings and grounds, $6,211,092.63; cost of libraries from 272 schools, $99,982.87; cost of laboratory equipment from 163 schools, $62,616.99; cost of manual training and home economics from 219 schools, $119,978.85; manual training taught in 65 schools; home economics taught in 85 schools; agriculture taught in 139 schools; total amount from tuition fees from 206 schools, $89,541.55; total amount for high school purposes from 189 schools, $575,621.22; total amount for salaries, including teachers and principals, $778,661.30; number of high school teachers, 1,288; number of pupils who were graduates last year, 2,808; number of new high school buildings, 30; cost of same, $865,000; increase in enrollment over last year, 1,950; increase in number of teachers, 199; increase in high school graduates, 338.

There are now in Kentucky thirty-two high schools for negroes. Reports from thirty of these high schools show at enrollment of 1,225 pupils, with 129 teachers. During the last school year, $48,864 was paid out for salaries of high school principals and teachers. The average cost per pupil is approximately $12.

LIBERTY MOTOR SUCCEEDS

Had Met Every Requirement in the Tests Made.

Washington.—The Liberty airplane motor has met every requirement in block tests and in actual air trials and while various foreign made motors have been offered to the government, there is no present intention of using any other than the Liberty motor for American production.

This statement was made at the Navy Department in answer to published reports that a foreign motor had been offered which navy officials considered better and implying that some friction had developed between the navy and the aircraft production board.

AMENDMENT IS INDORSED

Frankfort State Journal Prints Strong Editorial Favoring Adoption Of Constitutional Amendment And Pointing Out Its Advantages

The strong resolutions adopted by the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce favoring the Constitutional Amendment relating to the purchase of telephone lines are meeting with favor throughout the state. Among other papers which have endorsed this action editorially is the Frankfort State Journal, which recently published the following editorial:

"Amend The Constitution. The action of the Chamber of Commerce, in pledging its efforts to the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment relating to the purchase of telephone lines, and in calling upon other commercial bodies to support it, is both wise and timely.

"Two telephone lines in the same community, each contending for subscribers, is a nuisance—an expensive nuisance—to the public, and has been too long tolerated. When the busy merchant, farmer or professional man takes up his telephone, he wants to talk and talk quickly; and to be told that the party sought has 'the other line' naturally stirs his resentment. Two exchanges in the same town mean that the business and professional man must maintain both, and this he should not be required to do.

"Telephone service should be universal among telephone users; every telephone user should be able to reach every other telephone user, over his own phone.

The present Constitution of Kentucky was written when the telephone business was in its early infancy, and in it was written that one telephone company could not acquire by lease or purchase, the lines of a competing company, with the result that in every municipality where there have existed two telephone systems, however much a Chamber of Commerce or a City Council wished to have only one, they could get rid of neither without wrecking one. Both lines were doomed to continuous existence, in spite of the fact that generally neither was prosperous, or giving to the public satisfactory service. State authorities and local councils have complete power of regulation of telephone companies.

"The General Assembly adopted the pending amendment to the Constitution, permitting one telephone company to purchase the lines of another, provided the City Council, and the State authorities should approve the purchase; without that approval no purchase can be made. This amendment was passed by the House of Representatives without a dissenting vote, and by the Senate with only one negative vote. Such a vote is an indication of the wide-spread interest in the amendment and the demand for the relief it will bring. The public interest is fully protected.

"We cannot too highly commend the Chamber of Commerce in its efforts to secure the adoption of this amendment by the voters. The State Journal is for the amendment, and will add its efforts to those of the Chamber of Commerce to bring about the adoption.

ROBERTSON COUNTY "DRY"

Another Texas County Decides to Abolish Saloons.

Franklin, Texas.—Robertson county voted out saloons by a majority of 655, being the third Texas county to go "dry" since Sept. 10, when Dallas banned liquor, and was quickly followed by McLennan county.

The vote in Robertson, which had been partially "wet" for years, was: Prohibition 1,419, anti-prohibition 764.

Nine falcons are affected.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. The Beautiful Gulf Coast

The beautiful thing about the Gulf Coast, between New Orleans and Pensacola, is that it is a real playground, summer or winter—a playground for northern folk from November to May, and for southerners during the summer months. You can't ask for much more of placid nature than has been expended on the gulf littoral between New Orleans and Pensacola. There are pine woods, forests of live oaks, al moss hung and mysterious, long stretches of winding, shaded roads, woodland paths, quaint southern hamlets and modern resorts teeming with gaiety and active life; lovely retreats where you can swing in a hammock all day and drowse in the narcotic air. And there is the sparkling water, the beach, the surf, boating, fishing—anything and everything that calls from the salt waterside.

Going South on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, after you leave Mobile, it is impossible to escape the infection of joyous living, even if you wanted to do that. At every stop throngs of people are going and coming—youth and age alike, getting on or off the trains. Laughter and breezy, sunny, fragrant air greet you. It is moreover a place of sane, natural outdoor joys in surroundings of homely comfort or of luxurious ease, whichever you prefer. It is a locality of ancient and honorable traditions and the natives are descended from holders of the soil since the first days of the white settler. They make you welcome with a stately, southern hospitality, and have put at your disposal the best their home land affords. Every resort and every old plantation home is shaded by age-old ancestral oaks and grown over with trailing vines, roses and perennials; and they all look out over the gulf waters, at the dancing waves, the scudding sails, the beach and the surf. If you can't find happiness down there in the golden sunshine and among the countless diversions and attractions of that playground, don't go South in the winter expecting to find your "Promised Land," for you'll have only your trouble for your pains. No choicer spot exists and greater comfort is not to be found. The winter climate is ideal, not uncomfortably warm, but moderate and bracing, putting snap and ginger into the system.

Touring along the Gulf Coast is one of the ways travelers take to find their own particular choice—and for this purpose the train service of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad is convenient. You can stop everywhere, beginning at Mobile, and stay a few hours, a few days or as long as you wish. It is a fascinating vagabondage that will bring you eventually to the place of your ultimate desire. You can, also, if you choose, ship your motor car to Mobile and go in for regular touring along the gulf—the roads are all good and the country is fascinating in the extreme. History lends its background of fact to a long list of interesting tradition and romantic legends concerning this locality, and the "atmosphere," while wholly American, has the foreign flavor in sufficient degree to give it diversity and variety. Topographically, the coast lies low and curving, rising gently toward the hinterland, which is forested with pines, broken in the clearings, by rich and productive farmlands. The shore line is much indented, the numerous bays, "bayous," "sounds" and lakes give a seemingly endless and all-surrounding waterscape. Lying off the shore is a line of islands, forming the outer bulwark of Mississippi Sound, and fronting this are the resorts that have been famous since pre-revolutionary days—the towns which began as of the French colonies, begun under the brothers de Bienville and d'Iberville.

VOTE FOR THE CONSOLIDATION OF DUAL PHONE SYSTEMS

The voters of this county, in common with voters all over the state, will find on their ballots at the coming November election, the line for ratification of the constitutional amendment passed by the last legislature, providing that telephone lines in Kentucky may absorb other telephone lines, for the purpose of eliminating the double system of phones wherever it is deemed advisable. First, public endorsement of the amendment has come from the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce, and similar commercial bodies all over the state are taking up the matter in the hope of securing a big affirmative vote. There is so little argument to be presented against ratification of the amendment that such efforts are being made for fear that the voters may neglect to vote on it, rather than for fear of any substantial opposition. The dual system of telephones is not feasible. It is expensive and annoying and absolutely destructive to the proper functioning of the long distance system. It forces business houses to keep two telephone rents going, and puts people who have only the one line out of touch with those who have the other, whereas the prime purpose of the telephone is to knit communities and territories together by means of its facilities. The legislature was quick to realize the need of removing present restrictions which prohibit the absorbing of competing lines, and it is impossible to conceive of the people opposing the idea.

The amendment passed by the Senate with only one dissenting vote and encountered no opposition whatever in the House. The representatives of both parties recognized that only by means of this amendment to the Constitution could the state be saved the annoyance and expense of two telephone systems in the same community. Some of the larger cities, particularly Cincinnati, New York and Washington, early recognized that two telephone systems were an unnecessary burden on the community and never granted to more than one company a franchise for a telephone system, with the result that every telephone user in each of these cities is in direct communication with every other subscriber.

In Kentucky, in the early stages of the development of the telephone business, numerous small companies were organized. They did not connect, different kinds of equipment were used and the standard of maintenance was not universal, which retarded the advancement of telephone development in keeping with other states more progressive. Nearly every community in Kentucky has, at some time in its history, experienced a telephone war that engendered hard feelings, as each side had its partisans, and the public has been deprived of the convenience and economy that one telephone system affords.

The public interest is thoroughly protected under the proposed constitutional amendment, as no purchase can be made without the consent of the city council. The passage of the bill providing for the constitutional amendment and the practically unanimous vote it received in the General Assembly is evidence that it was passed in response to a wide-spread and popular demand for relief from present telephone conditions.—Paducah (Ky.) Evening Sun.

THAT KITCHENER MYTH.

Nothing can kill in the soul of man a belief in the supernatural. The germ may be infinitesimal; but it lives on in spite of the sneers of materialism and the reasonings of common sense. Men laugh at the absurdity of it even while they hold out a hand to the palmist or consult a "medium." Under the "joke" of it there is always an unacknowledged trace of superstitious belief in what we are told while the lights burn low and the voice of the teller chimes in with the surroundings.

It is this reaching after the supernatural that makes us hold to our myths of old days and creates new ones for the passing years. It was this imperishable germ, working in the minds of men, that made the English for centuries look for the coming again of the dead King Arthur. It is this same germ that has held the German masses in the belief that Frederick Barbarossa is not dead, but will come again to fight their battles.

And it is this same supernatural germ that is setting the people of England to whispering that the warrior Kitchener is not dead, but that somewhere he is alive and some day he will return out of the fogs and glooms that make a mystery of that wild water space where the North Sea swirls upward to meet the tides of the Atlantic. There, in a gray horror of fog settling over a green horror of seething billows, was where he slipped out of sight. Thence he will return.

The English masses read the story of his death and heard the funeral knells the church bells rang for him. But there was no coffin and no grave and no one ever saw the stiff, stark body of their hero. The uncertainty was the prelude to hope, and hope grew into a beautiful myth. Down in their hearts the people know that he is dead, but in their superstitious fancy they believe he is alive.

And so, in this hard, prosaic age, is set up another national myth to stimulate chivalry and to shed a light of romance far down the ages—the Kitchener myth of courage and patriotism. And the coming generations of England will be the better and the braver for its hold upon their hearts.—Commercial Appeal.

LET US AWAKEN.

(Contributed)

In this modern age, in this fast age of the American people, we do not have time to stop and consider, it seems, as to whether we have any great men or not.

In this day and age people are too prone to criticize—we have gotten too narrow, at least the mass of people have, to see any good and great qualities in a man unless he is of one political and religious belief.

Let us away with such thoughts, especially should we at this time—in these perilous times, when our country's welfare and our own liberty-loving homes are in danger of being destroyed.

What matters now about politics? Isn't it men we want—men of unselfish brains, who will give their time and thought for the benefit of the mass of common people. In this age people are too selfish, seeking wealth, happiness and promotion for themselves only, or for their own immediate little circle. Let us awaken, and think a little for ourselves.

We have at this very time, a man, a hero, a great man, a brainy man, a tried and true man, who is now standing at the head of our Nation—(who would want to take his place just at this time?)—striving with might and main to lead this great concourse of people to victory and to right. Just anybody can criticize, but it takes a wonderful man to be faultless.

Should we not at this critical time lay down all political prejudices and like the people of old who upheld the hands of Moses, their leader, so let us uphold the hands of our great leader at this time.

BITUMINOUS PRODUCTION IN KENTUCKY INCREASES

Lexington, Ky.—Production of bituminous coal in the East Tennessee and Kentucky fields for October will show a decided increase during the month of October over the corresponding month of last year, according to unofficial figures obtainable here. Although the coal strike was not settled until early in the month and the output has been curtailed as a result there seems to be a desire on the part of the miners to outdo in production the amount of coal at other periods, says statisticians.

With the urgent need of the fuel in all parts of the country and the efficiency methods produced by the operators and miners alike it is anticipated that the industry will be speeded up and the shortage now existing in various parts of the country will be overcome, it was stated.

NEGRESS 114 YEARS OLD DIES IN MEMPHIS HOME

Rachael Speight, a negro woman who is said to have been 114 years old, died at her home on Southern Avenue and the Parkway, says the Commercial Appeal.

Although she was probably the oldest person, either white or black, in Memphis, she was far from being the feeblest. Until a week ago she was able to walk about and to do part of her own housework. Death was due to general debility.

Rachael was a slave on a Mississippi plantation before the war. She was born in Ripley, Miss., and had lived in Memphis for 50 years. She was a member of the Mt. Moriah Baptist church.

SEVEN POUNDS WEIGHT LIMIT FOR CHRISTMAS PACKAGES FOR FRANCE

Washington.—Christmas presents and other gifts from home for American soldiers in France must be restricted to parcels of not more than seven pounds each. The Post-office Department announced it had been informed by the American postal authorities in France that under the arrangements with the French railways the French postal service is unable to carry in the parcel post packages in excess of seven pounds.

BOY, 16, SLAYER OF MAN, 60, IS SENTENCED TO PRISON

New York.—Benjamin Asnis, 16 years old, who pleaded guilty to killing Samuel Schneiderman, 60, giving as the reason that the man had plenty to eat while he and his family were starving, was sent to Sing Sing Prison for from eight to sixteen years. The court accepted a plea of manslaughter on the District Attorney's representation that Asnis was medically, though not legally, insane.

FOOD SUPPLY.

For France During Coming Year Is Grave Problem.

Paris.—The purchase abroad and transportation of about 122,000,000 bushels of wheat and other cereals is one of the problems of France for the campaign of 1918. Four hundred thousand tons of shipping a month will be required for the importation of supplies the country must get on the outside.

The realization of this problem will be partly accomplished through the United Allies' Purchasing Board, eliminating more and more private trade with the country. The development of a ministerial department of supply will eliminate commissary department buyers, while increasing stringent measure regarding shipping will increase the tonnage available for this object.

Successive decrees now have compelled every ship owner to obtain a navigation license prescribing the particular route for each vessel and the categories of merchandise destined for the Government that it would be required to take on board on each voyage and also giving the Secretary of State for Merchant Marine powers to limit transportation charges on products essential to the life of the country.

Henceforth, all tonnage under the French flag will be systematically divided between the different categories of indispensable products, in order to assure the utmost regularity of supply. Certain voyages which were of no great utility to France have been stopped, and the transportation of coffee and other products of secondary utility to a nation at war have been suspended. Orders have been given that cotton and tobacco must be bought from the nearest market.

Navigation between France and the colony of Madagascar will be greatly reduced, and the French lines to Cuba, Argentina, Brazil and New Orleans will be reduced as regards the number of ships or sailings suspended altogether.

As a result of these measures 180,000 tons of additional shipping have been placed at the disposition of the provisioning department, and the tendency is more toward the intense compression of the navigation service so as to make every ton of burden count for the utmost.

ANIMALS IN FIRE.

Most animals are afraid of fire, and will fly from it in terror. To others there is a fascination about a flame, and they will walk into it, even though tortured by the heat, observes a writer in the United Presbyterian.

A horse in a burning stable goes mad with fear, but a dog is as cool in a fire as at any time. He keeps his nose down to the floor, where the air is purest, and sets himself calmly to finding his way out. Cats in fire cry piteously. They hide their faces from the light and crouch in corners. When their rescuer lifts them they are as a rule quite docile and subdued, never biting or scratching.

Birds seem to be hypnotized by fire, and keep perfectly still; even the loquacious parrot in a fire has nothing to say. Cows, like dogs, do not show alarm. They are easy to lead forth and often find their way out themselves.

WHO OPPOSE THE DRAFT?

Complaint against the selective draft continues in many places, and as a new levy approaches it will increase, in spite of the law which makes open resistance a crime.

Aside from the very few conscripted men who have manifested their unwillingness to serve, opposition does not proceed from those of military age. Testimony from all the National Army camps is to the same effect—that the chosen are in the main enthusiastic for service and that such as have been found unfit have gone home in sorrow and humiliation.

If the young men called for duty are not offering objections, what element of the population is it that complains and resists? First, there are the so-called pacifists, domestic and alien, disliking war of every kind, as they say, but especially war upon Germany. Then we have the International Socialists, who dream of a love-feast of the proletariat which their dear brethren in the Fatherland have done nothing to promote. After them come the politicians who adhere to the Prussian belief that the German reservists here are numerous enough to outvote the Americans, and finally we have a handful of college professors and hysterical women.

Wherever we find antagonism to the draft we encounter an enemy, a demagogue, a sentimentalist or a deserter. Practically all of the young men selected are first and last for the United States. Practically all who discourage them and disapprove of the methods by which they were chosen are against the United States. The Kaiser has no more dependable reservists anywhere.—New York World.

TWO UNMASKED BANDITS ROB ARKANSAS BANK

Cashier of Cane Hill Institution Locked in Vault.

Fayetteville, Ark.—Two men rode up to the Bank of Cane Hill, 20 miles west of here, entered the bank, forced Herbert Paycatt, assistant cashier, into the vault and escaped with $2,600 in cash, according to information received.

A posse formed here motored to Cane Hill in search of the yeggs, but no report has been received from them.

Paycatt made his way out of the vault within 30 minutes by using tools which had been stored in it, and spread the alarm. It is said that burglary insurance was carried.

A total of $500 in rewards is offered for apprehension of the bandits, including $100 offered by the sheriff's office.

BAKER WOULD PRESERVE TRADITIONS OF THE ARMY

Washington.—Commenting on suggestions that the rank of Field Marshal be created for Gen. Pershing as Commander-in-Chief of the American expeditionary forces, Secretary Baker said he was not disposed to propose the change. He indicated a feeling that the Government should preserve the traditions of the service which make the rank of General the highest. If the expeditionary force eventually consists of several field armies each probably will be commanded by a Lieutenant General. Secretary Baker said the question of naming Lieutenant General was not now under consideration.

Maryland Woman Discovered Who Knew Nothing Of War.

Baltimore.—The woman's Liberty Loan Committee, of Maryland, announced that it had discovered a woman in Howard county, about 25 miles from this city, who had not heard of the Liberty Loan and did not know that the United States was at war with Germany.

The committee stated that the woman was intelligent and the mother of several small children. She told the committee her husband went to work daily at 4 a. m. and was too tired when he came in from work at 6 p. m. to talk. The woman added that she had not been out of her home, except to go to church, in five years.

Pass Along the SMOKES

YOU warm-hearted people of Ohio county won't let the men who are fighting your fight go smoke-hungry.

Not a bit of it. You're going to see to it that they get all the tobacco they need—just as the folks back home in England and France are taking care of the smokes for Tommy and Poilu.

It isn't much to do—considering. A dollar or a quarter from you that gives a little comfort to one of your own flesh and blood, doesn't stack up to much alongside the fact that the very man you are befriending may have to give up his life.

But it's a regular thing to do—and you "regular" men and women will do it.

This is the way. Fill in that coupon below, put it in an envelope together with all you can afford to give and drop it in the nearest box now, addressed to

HARTFORD HERALD Tobacco Fund

Our paper has joined the Courier-Journal and the Louisville Times in this most worthy undertaking.

Approved by Secretaries of War and Navy, the management of this fund buys its tobacco at cost—every contribution of twenty-five cents means forty-five to fifty cents' worth of tobacco for the man out there. No one profits but the fighting man—rents, postage, advertising are all contributed and the soldier who gets your tobacco will send you a postal telling how much it meant to him.

There's no argument here. Just put your name on that blank line and pass along the smokes.

Kentucky, via Hopkinsville. They will be at home to their friends on the farm near Matanzas. Their friends wish them much happiness.

Miss Maud Calloway, who has been visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Bennett of Hartford, Route 3, for several days, has returned home accompanied by her cousin Arnold.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Williams, last Wednesday, a baby girl which lived only a few hours. Mr. and Mrs. Lib Ashby, of Hartford, Route 4, are the proud parents of a baby born last Thursday morning. Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Massey, of Route 1, are the proud parents of a baby born last Saturday morning, and all doing well. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tooley, also of Route 1, have a new baby at their home which arrived just a few days since.

Mr. D. J. Duncan, of Bowling Green, visited his daughter, Misses Agnes and Grace, the former teaching and the latter attending school here.

Mrs. Alice Swain and daughter, Rebabell, will leave next Saturday morning for Detroit, Mich., to join Mr. Booth Swain and daughter, Nova, who have been living there for the past several months. Mr. P. O. McKinney and wife have just moved into the residence vacated by Mrs. Swain.

Rev. J. B. Barburn is away for two weeks assisting the Rev. M. G. Buckner, of Lewisport, in a revival. Miss Elizabeth Craxton, of Madison Ill., is spending the winter with the family of Eddie Himes.

Aunt Lou Maddox and daughter, Miss Pearl Tichenor, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson, of McHenry, all motored to Livermore to see their aunt and uncle, Mrs. and Mr. W. W. Tichenor.

Miss Isabel Condit, of Route 1, and Mr. Geo. Nichols, of Montrose, Colo., were married at Madisonville one day last week. They will reside in Montrose.

BENNETTS.

Oct. 29.—The singing which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Thatcherell Pickerill Sunday night in honor of Miss Martin Alva and Miss Violet Carden, was very much enjoyed by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Royal, Fordsville, spent from Tuesday until Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wallace.

Mrs. ——— Alva and daughter, Martin, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thatcherell Pickerill this week.

Mr. Roscoe Carson, of Connersville, Ind., is visiting his mother, Mrs. William Carson, and also his grandmother, Mrs. John Herrel.

Prof. Otis Carson has resigned teaching Victory school and Miss Margaret Cardwell, of Beaver Dam, has taken the place.

Mrs. Chester Leach and little daughter, of Cromwell, are spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Rhea Daniel.

CENTRAL GROVE.

Farmers are very busy in this neighborhood making up their molasses and sowing wheat.

Sunday School at this place is getting along nicely. Also the singing school taught by Willie Igleheart, is meeting with success.

We had no preaching at this place Sunday on account of Rev. R. E. Fuqua being engaged in a meeting elsewhere.

Rev. M. G. Snell, of this place, was called to Concord Baptist church Saturday morning to preach the funeral of Herman Morris, one of the Ohio county soldier boys, who was sent back home on account of his health, some time ago. Bro. Snell also began a protracted meeting at Concord Sunday night, Oct. 28th.

Mr. Worth Ashby's family is reported some better at this writing.

Miss Ada Young is reported to be improving.

Bro. Oscar Ashby is holding a meeting at Adaburg.

EQUALITY.

Miss Mag Hunter, of Ceralvo, has returned home after a visit of several days to her brother, J. R. Hunter, and family, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Drake.

Mr. P. L. Wood and daughter, Miss Anna, of Ceralvo; Mr. Arnold Bennett, Beda; Miss Maud Calloway, Centertown, attended church at Smallhouse church Sunday. Also Mr. and Mrs. Mason and son, Mr. Gross, and Mr. J. I. Leach, Central City. Several children in this community have whooping cough, and there are several cases of measles.

COMMUNITY FAIR

At Goshen Quite a Success Though Weather Kept Down Attendance.

The Farmers' Community Club met at Goshen Saturday, October 27, 1917, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, there wasn't as large a crowd present as expected. All those present enjoyed themselves and pronounced it a day well spent.

The community feels that it has been greatly benefited by its co-operative efforts and expecting greater things in the future, and hope to see other communities take up the same line of work.

Our pastor, Rev. Litchfield, gave us an interesting talk. Our farm demonstrator, W. W. Browder, was present with three State men.

Mr. Bryant gave us an interesting address on "More and Better Livestock." Also Messrs. Nelson and Fields were present and gave us interesting talks on agriculture.

The following is a list of the prize winners:

Best acre of corn—J. A. Caldwell—94 bushels and 20-lbs., per acre. Second—Mitchell Renter—78 bushels and 35-lbs.

Best bushel of corn—W. T. Richardson. Second—Mitchell Renter.

Best bushel of wheat—J. A. Caldwell. Second—Mitchell Renter.

Best bushel of navy beans—Wm. H. Luce. Second—W. T. Richardson.

Best bushel of Irish potatoes—Mitchell Renter.

Best gallon of sorghum—W. T. Richardson. Second—J. A. Caldwell.

Best watermelon—W. T. Richardson. Second—Will Blair.

Best Pie—Edith Chinn. Second—Ethel Ford.

Best lightbread—Mrs. W. T. Richardson. Second—Mrs. A. S. Chinn.

Best pound of butter—Mrs. W. T. Richardson. Second—Mrs. A. S. Chinn.

Best cake—Mrs. A. S. Chinn. Second—Mrs. Cleve Stevens.

The ladies also had a fine display of canned goods and fancy work.

Best pig was won by Clifton Richardson. Second—Roy H. Foreman.

In the athletic races the school children worked nobly for the prizes awarded by the Club.

Mrs. Dave Ford won first prize for best trio of chickens. Mrs. J. A. Caldwell second prize.

GERMANS RETREAT SO FAST THAT RUSSIANS LOSE TRACK OF THEM

Petrograd, Oct. 26.—The Russian troops on the northern end of the front, following the Germans in their withdrawal in that sector, have advanced as far as the Riga-Orel railway without discovering the enemy, the War Office reports.

Russian forces on the Werder coast of Esthonia yesterday repulsed a German detachment, the Russian War Office announced today. Part of the German naval squadron, including some dreadnoughts, the statement adds, is anchored in Kuivast Bay, on the eastern side of Moon Island, in the Gulf of Riga.

WORKERS HAVE MORE AT STAKE THAN ANY OTHERS

A strong appeal to the workmen of this country to participate in the second Liberty Loan to the fullest extent has been made by William B. Wilson, secretary of labor.

Secretary Wilson points out that "the workers have more at stake in this great conflict than any others, because it is only in a democracy that the common people can come into their own."

"The great European war in which we are now involved came to the people of the Western Hemisphere as a terrible shock, and to no portion of the people did it come as a greater shock than to the wage-earners of the United States. They believed in and wanted international peace, but they wanted it on a basis of international justice which would insure the right of our people to govern themselves. When the Imperial German Government undertook to destroy the lives of our people and to impose a rule of conduct upon us without our consent in places under the jurisdiction of the United States government, there was no course left but to resist," Secretary Wilson said.

"The workers have more at stake in this conflict than any others, because it is only in a democracy that the common people can come into their own. The great privilege is not given to all of us to serve our country on the battlefield or in the trenches, but there are other ways in which we can serve and assist those who are privileged to carry our flag on the battle fields of Europe. The impulse of sacrifice for the common good is sending the youth of our country into the trenches in defense of Liberty, humanity and democracy.

"To those of us who must of necessity remain at home to till the soil, harvest the crops, man the factories, mines and mills, the way is open for additional service. We too must make sacrifices. The men who go forth to do battle in the field must be equipped and sustained. Funds must be forthcoming to furnish the food, the firearms and other supplies for the fighting forces of the nation. Finances for that purpose must be secured immediately from the sale of bonds. The workers can help by contributing their mite.

Combined Efforts Will Win.

"I am reminded of the fable of a great drought when the crops were wasting for the want of water, and one little raindrop said to another in the clouds, 'I would like to go down to the relief of the farmer and his perishing crops, but I am so little it would be useless.' And another little raindrop replied, 'It would be useless for you to go down alone, but let us all go down and our combined effort will bring the needed relief.' The advice was accepted and a beautiful shower poured down on the land and the crops were saved for the harvest.

"And so it is with the workers. The funds each has available is but a drop, but all of the drops together can make a shower of funds that will furnish the needed supplies, bring joy to the hearts of the boys at the front and consternation to our enemies," Secretary Wilson declared.

DAY SELLING LIBERTY BONDS

Clarkson Potter, chairman of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company, devoted his own time and that of his salesmen throughout the country one whole day to the sale of Liberty Bonds.

As a result of their campaign in St. Louis they received 183 subscriptions.

MAXWELL

Most Miles per Gallon

Most Miles on Tires

$745

F. O. B. DETROIT

There are visions—now and then—in business and industry.

The Maxwell motor car is a wonderful vision that has been made real.

The fixed purpose of the Maxwell builders was in the beginning, and is now, to produce a car which would be, in the highest sense, efficient, durable, economical, comfortable and standard in equipment.

Many years experience in production on a vast scale has taught the Maxwell manufacturers two things.

One is that such a car as they have always made their aim—a car in which efficiency, durability, economy, comfort, beauty and standard equipment are all present—cannot be built for less than $745 with materials at their present prices.

The other lesson is that, for more than $745, they could not give you anything more than the Maxwell now has—except greater size or luxuries, pure and simple.

In other words they are convinced—and they have convinced us—that they have found the great MIDDLE LINE where you get dollar for dollar in ABSOLUTE VALUE.
